

CETX Energy Agency Joins Amerex Energy Services

HOUSTON – November 2, 2009

Amerex Energy Services, the commercial and industrial energy consulting division of Amerex Brokers LLC, announces that it has combined the personnel and operations of CETX Energy Agency with those of its own, under the terms of an Asset Purchase Agreement that closed effective November 1, 2009.

CETX will continue to operate and provide client service and support as before to its customers in Texas, under the leadership of Phyllis Anzalone, with the additional benefit of having access to Amerex's wholesale market and retail expertise. As a result of combining the strengths of CETX and Amerex Energy Services, clients of both groups will receive superior service and support.

"It was a pleasure to deal with CETX in this transaction. We have been familiar with CETX for several years and are happy to have a group with such a great reputation join Amerex. We are very pleased that the two of us could arrange a mutually beneficial transaction that results in the affiliation of CETX with Amerex, another Texas-based company," said Amerex President Clay Davis."
